

The Twentieth Century Number and Evangelist Day ❖ ❖ ❖

The Twentieth Century Number of the Brethren Evangelist will be mailed on Thursday, January 3, 1901, and will be the first issue in the new century. The Sunday following the date of issue has been announced as EVANGELIST Day, and we hope to make it the very best the EVANGELIST has ever known, but please remember that the work must begin now; that January 6, 1901, is really the closing of the short season which we designate as EVANGELIST Day. Work has already begun and must continue without abatement until the day herein named. Let every reader of the paper, and especially every one who feels an interest in the cause of the EVANGELIST, give attention to the following:

1. While we have special agents thru-out the brotherhood, appointed by the pastors (where the pastor is not himself the agent) yet we authorize every reader of this paper to work for the object aimed at, namely 3,000 subscribers. If there is an agent in your congregation, work with him. Let there be one united effort toward the accomplishment of that for which we have labored these many years.

2. First, get all the renewals possible, for unless we can hold these it will require a greater number of new subscribers to make the full 3,000. Send in the names of renewals as you secure them, together with the cash if you have made collections.

3. Get all the new subscribers possible, but hold names and money till Saturday, January 5, 1901, or Monday, January 7, 1901, then mail the result of your work from this day to either of the above named dates. If you hold over till January 7, you will have an opportunity to do additional work on Sunday, January 6.

PLEASE REMEMBER

That every subscriber who renews between this and January 6, 1901, if the order is accompanied by the cash, is entitled to one copy of the Annual for 1901.

That for every new subscriber a copy of the Life of D. L. Moody will be given either to the one who gets the subscriber or to the subscriber himself, just as the "getter" of the subscriber may designate.

That extra copies of the Twentieth Century Number of the EVANGELIST will be printed so that every new subscriber will get a copy, the same to be mailed after the "returns come in" during the week beginning January 6.

That the Twentieth Century Number of the EVANGELIST will be the most elaborate affair ever sent out of this office, and old subscribers desiring extra copies will do well to place their order at once. The paper will contain cuts of a number of pastors, church buildings, parsonages, interesting historical matter, contributions relating specially to the outgoing and to the incoming centuries, etc., etc. Price for extra copies, five or more, 2 cents each. Do not depend on getting extra copies without placing an order for them, as all new subscribers will be supplied with one copy each before any copies will be sold.

Pastors and Laymen and Everybody

Will you join with us in one grand effort to reach the 3,000 subscribers the first week in the new year and in the new century? What a triumph it will be if the first issue in the new century will be mailed to 3,000 subscribers, and with glad hearts you will await the arrival of the second issue in the new year bringing the news that the full 3,000 subscribers have been secured. Reader, it is worth working for. It will mean vastly more to the whole church than we are able to set forth on this printed page. Do not depend on some one else doing the work, but let each one go to work as if the result depended on his individual effort.

Do Not Forget

In making an effort to get new subscribers to inform them that their first number will be a magnificent, illustrated, Twentieth Century Number, and that now is the time to subscribe so as to get this number.

ASHLAND COLLEGE

Winter Term of Ashland College will open Tuesday, January 1, 1901. Collegiate, Normal, Preparatory and Biblical departments sustained; also Musical, Shorthand and Business courses under efficient instructors.

We offer splendid opportunities for study under thorough and experienced teachers.

Tuition for twelve weeks $8.00. Write for our Catalog and College paper. Address

J. Allen Miller, Pres.